Headteacher's Notes

Dear parents and carers,

Happy New Year and welcome back.

As you are aware, our week began with the notification that we would be inspected by Ofsted. Across Tuesday and Wednesday, two inspectors thoroughly reviewed our school. Whilst it will be a couple of weeks before we receive our report, I wanted to take the opportunity to say how proud of the children we have been. They have been a credit to the school and their families. I would also like to thank the parents and carers that were supportive of the school in their feedback. Finally, I would like to thank all of the staff who work hard, day in, day out, to provide your children with the best educational experience they can.

In other school news, we had three new children start in our Nursery class this week and would like to say a warm welcome to them, and their families.

Looking to next week, we will soon be sending out letters for this term's clubs which will start a week on Monday, a week later than planned.

After such a busy and important week, I wish you all a great (and, for the staff, a restful) weekend and we look forward to seeing you all on Monday.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Spruce
